Galil Mountain's Sauvignon Blanc is from the higher elevations of the Upper Galilee, considered the best winegrowing area in Israel. The wine is aromatic and fresh with distinct citrus, chalk and herb flavors, a firm acidity, and a mouthwatering finish.

Gilgal Chardonnay was produced entirely from Chardonnay grapes grown in the Golan Heights. The cool climate, rocky volcanic soil, and high altitude are ideal conditions for growing classic wine grape varieties. Aging in French oak barrels for 4 months adds a pleasing toastiness to the lemony character

Galil Mountain Merlot is an elegant Merlot from the Upper Galilee with firm structure and full aroma. Complex berry fruit combines with hints of citrus and spice on the palate.

Gilgal Cabernet Sauvignon was produced from Cabernet Sauvignon grapes grown in the Golan Heights and Upper Galilee. The cool climate, rocky volcanic soil, and high altitude are ideal conditions for growing this classic variety. Aging in French oak barrels for 12 months adds to the complexity and cellaring potential of this deep red wine. - one of my favorites Bordeaux Style, silky, very good

Chardonnay - This is light, pleasant, and fruity; a simple, but refreshing and easy-drinking everyday wine.
Merlot - This is fun and fruity, slightly jammy, light-to-medium bodied, with a slight bite at the end, but not bitter. Not concentrated or complex, but an easy-to-drink everyday wine. Serve lightly chilled. -
Cabernet - Shows a slightly serious side, but remains uncomplicated, offering rich plum, cassis and red berry fruit characteristics, slightly tannic grip. While not altogether balanced, it is refreshing and easy-drinking. Served lightly chilled.

Teal Lake Shiraz - full bodied wine, enjoys an magnificent ruby color accentuated by pleasant aromas of spicy cherry and anise. This wine is filled with notes of ripe berry and spice.

Guillermo Malbec - Dry, Medium-Bodied, Fruity, Rich

Yarden Cabernet - full flavored, hint of oak, complex. A truly excellent wine.

Yarden Chardonnay - complex wine with fruit and floral notes with hints of oak and butter
